Kind Ambition

A MUSICAL PRESENTATION BY JON GOLDSTEIN

In this autobiographical presentation, songwriter Jon Goldstein shares his "true story," opening up about achievements and challenges, physical calamity, and acceptance of life's tragedies, all with honesty, humor, and humility.

Jon shares a tale that is introspective and vulnerable, both in spoken word and the lyrics of his original songs. Often funny and always engaging, Jon's story delights and delivers insight, asking audience members to examine their own triumphs and failings, and to celebrate the "true story" of their own lives.

Jon's work has been seen on ABC's Good Morning America, in New York City at 42 West, The Acorn Theatre, The Algonquin Theater, The Cherry Lane Theatre, The Culture Project, Theatre 80 St. Mark's, The Women's Project, The Workshop Theater, Ellis Island, Liberty Island, and the United Nations. He enjoys writing and performing original music and is a sought-after sideman for several Long Island-based original songwriters.
